ABOUT

I am a 2nd year Computer Science student at Chandigarh University, driven by a fervor for technology and a strong work ethic. Proficient in programming languages like C, C++, and Java, with a solid grasp of Data Structures, I am on a continuous journey to enhance my skills. My experience in team competitions has honed my collaborative abilities and problem-solving skills. Currently delving into Full Stack Web Development, I am eager to explore new domains and actively seeking opportunities to apply and expand my knowledge, making a meaningful impact in the world of technology.
